

POWER

POWER is a creative electro-pop collective from Detroit, MI, spearheaded by siblings Seth and Jax Anderson. Drawing heavy influences anywhere from spaghetti-western film scores to memorable Top 40 hooks, their eclectic sound earned the band first place in the 2010 nationwide College Battle of the Bands contest. As a result, the duo has since opened for big-name acts such as T-Pain and OutKast's Big Boi, and has signed to a management deal with Bonded Entertainment. This year, POWER landed an on-screen musical performance of their song "Billy the Kid" in the upcoming major motion picture Renee starring Kat Dennings, Chad Michael Murray and Rupert Friend. Their hit "Can You Save Me?" is also featured as the theme song for the #1 rated show on the USA Network, Covert Affairs.
